

ISPA's 8th Annual Conference: “

Monday, November 12th 2012, 9:15am

A one-day conference debating the commercial and regulatory issues of today and tomorrow
Location: Hogan Lovells, 50 Holborn Viaduct London, Greater London EC1A 2FG

What are the Key Issues?

- Communications Data
- Broadband strategy
- Cyber security
- Communications Act

Who needs to attend?

- Directors
- Policy advisors
- Regulatory and technical specialists
- Senior management

What are the costs?

- Fee for ISPA members £95 plus VAT
- Early bird fee £85 plus VAT
- Fee for non-members £195 plus VAT
- Early bird fee £175 plus VAT

Book before 12th October to receive early bird discount. Book online -

2011 Conference in Numbers

130 delegates from across Industry and Government

100% of delegates rated the speakers good or excellent

70% of attendees made new business contacts at the event

Previous ISPA Conferences in Quotes:

"Thought it was a very interesting event and the sponsor's session was very good."

"Very useful day with some excellent speakers."

"Excellent opportunity to quiz the Government and clarify some of the issues affecting our business."

To register or for any queries please contact
ISPA on 020 3397 3304 or admin@ispa.org.uk. Book tickets here.

Sponsored by: Tbc

ISPA's 8th Annual Conference:

MORNING AGENDA

Twitter hashtag: #ISPAUK Wireless password:
iPhones/iPad & Mac's password:

0915

Registration and Coffee

0940

Introduction by Nicholas Lansman - ISPA Secretary General and Mark Gracey – ISPA Chair

0945

Keynote Address: Tbc

1005

Q&A Chair: Nicholas Lansman – ISPA Secretary General

First Session

1015

Will the Draft Communications Data Bill help catch more criminals?

- What has changed and how will businesses be effected?
- Is the extension of powers necessary and will it provide value for money?
- How will the system work in practice?

Chair: Trefor Davies – Timico and ISPA Council

Panellists: Conor Ward, Partner – Hogan Lovells

1130

Coffee and Networking

1145

How can Britain's broadband strategy best help SMEs and businesses?

- Is the current focus too much on speeds and not enough on reach of service?
- What are the next steps for the broadband strategy?
- How best can we ensure that investment in broadband reaches businesses and consumers in all parts of the UK?

Chair: Mark Gracey – C&W and Chair of ISPA Council

Panellists: Tbc

1250

NETWORKING LUNCH

AFTERNOON AGENDA

Third session

1400 Can a set of ISP cyber security guiding principles be agreed?

- What are the proposed principles and will they help?
- Can the principles be made to work across all business sizes?
- How else can ISPs and law enforcement work better together to ensure a safer internet experience?

Chair: James Blessing – Limelight Networks and ISPA Council member

Panellists: Tbc

1500 Coffee and Networking

Fourth session

1520 Review of the Communications Act

- Update from the policy seminars
- Is there a need for a wholesale review of the communications framework?
- Specific areas such as Active Choice?

Chair: Tbc

Panellists: Tbc

1635 Drinks reception with selected members of the media

1800 Close

Sponsored by: Tbc